New York—Washington—Paris.

An Important Remnant Day.

Scores of remnants and short lengths in Colored and Black Dress Goods, and all sorts of Wash Fabrics. Our rule of always cutting lengths to suit customers creates great quantities of remnants. The accumulation this week consists of the newest and brightest spring styles, and the lengths are sufficient for a separate skirt, a waist, a child's frock, a boy's or girl's shirt waist. We have made the prices very low in order to

There are also multitudes of odds and ends, incomplete lines, broken sizes and assortments, etc.—these, together with any merchandise not strictly perfect or not measuring up to our high standard, and any particular styles of goods that lag or have not sold as quickly as we think they should-are treated as remnants, and by force of a reduced price will be closed out immediately. Thus you are afforded an opportunity to buy seasonable and desirable merchandise at a decided saving, and we are enabled to keep our stocks complete, fresh and attractive all the time.

A week's collection of remnants to be sold in a day-hence the little prices for Friday.

PLEASANT HOSPITALITIES OF THE FIRST OF MAY.

Kendall Green Visited by Notable Company-A Reception for a Newly Married Couple-Notes.

Prof. and Mrs. Gallaudet, as is their hospitable custom, were at home yesterday to several hundred guests after the presentation exercises at the Deaf Mute College. Wild flowers and fruit blossoms adorned the rooms, and the hostess was assisted by Mrs. Stanley Brown and Miss Cockrell. Miss Errol Cuthbert Brown, Miss Emily Page Kemp, Miss Gladys Ffoulke and Miss Sanger also took part in the hospitalities. At the tea table Mrs. Day and Miss Gallaudet did the honors. The occasion was a

CAVEAT FILED.

Heirs at Law Contest Will of Eliza betha Barbara Sailer. Eleven heirs-at-law, the majority of whom reside in Wuerttemberg, Germany, today filed a caveat to the will of Elizabetha Barbara Sailer, deceased, dated the 10th of December, 1900. It is stated that the caveators are the sole devisees under a will of the decedent, dated July 4, 1896. By the will of December 10, 1900, the Washington Home for Incurables is made sole beneficiary, and the matron of the institution is appointed executrix and trustee... The caveators assert that the will of De-cember 10, 1900, was not executed by the decedent as her last will and testament that if she ever did attempt to execute it she was not of sound or disposing mind, nor capable of executing a valid deed or contract, and that the paper writing was executed, if at all, under improper and undue instituted by Emma L. Clagett and Maurice J. Clagett, her husband, against the Washington Market Company and Frederick L. Grunewald, surviving partner of W. M. Moreland & Co. The plaintiffs sued to recover damages in the sum of $10,000, contending that in December, 1898, while in the market house of the Washington Market Company she slipped on a fish and susket Company she slipped on a fish and sustained painful injury.

PLAINTIFFS WIN SUIT. Mr. and Mrs. Clagett Awarded $1,000

The jury first reported a verdict for $500 against each of the defendants. Chief Justice Bingham instructed the jury that the form of the verdict was not correct. The twelve men thereupon again retired, and in a few minutes made announcement of a total finding of $1,000 against both defendants. Attorneys Davis and Tucker appeared for the plaintiffs.
